MACHEN'S REMOVAL

Will Not be Considered by Gen. Payne Unless Substantiated Evidence is Shown.

SCOPE OF THE INVESTIGATION

Will Be Extended and Include Administration of Former Postmaster General Smith.

Washington, D. C., May 1.—Postmaster General Payne this afternoon authorized the following statement: "There has come to me no request for the removal or suspension of A. W. Machen, superintendent of the free delivery division. Unless the request for Mr. Machen's removal or suspension be made by the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, who is conducting the investigation, or there is brought to me evidence that can be substantiated that Mr. Machen is guilty of some unlawful or improper act, I shall not remove or suspend him."

Referring to his order of March 1, directing that all contracts for furnishing supplies of a certain character cease until further notice, pending the investigation. Postmaster General Payne said this applied particularly to the division of salaries and allowances that had been presided over by G. W. Beavers and did not include the division over which Machen is still superintendent, although the affairs of the latter division are under investigation.

WILL EXTEND SCOPE OF INVESTIGATION.

Washington, D. C., May 1.—Postmaster General Payne, after a lengthy conference with Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow and Auditor Castle to-night, decided upon a plan of action that will extend the scope of the present investigation and include the administration of former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith, of Philadelphia, and that of former First Assistant Postmaster General Heath, of Salt Lake City.

WANTS KENTUCKY MILITIA TO HELP IN MANOEUVRES

Frankfort, Ky., May 1.—Governor Beckham in response to a letter received by him from Major General H. C. Bates, U. S. A., commanding the Department of the Lakes, today asked that the Kentucky State Guard be allowed to participate in the maneuvers of that department at their summer encampment. It is very probable that that they will be sent.

If they are they will receive the regular pay allowed the soldiers of the army, sustenance and transportation to and from the point of encampment. Adjutant General Murray left tonight for Louisville to meet Major W. L. Luck, of the Ninth United States Infantry. Major Buck has been detailed to inspect the State militia of Kentucky.

TOOK REFUGE ON THE HILLS

Italian Burned to Death In Disastrous Saw Mill Fire and People Driven From Homes

Williamsport, Pa., May 1.—The saw mill and lumber yard of the Lackawanna Lumber Company, at Cross Fork, Potter County, was destroyed by fire today and an Italian burned to death. Thirty cars loaded with lumber for Buffalo and Susquehanna were also consumed. People driven from their homes by the flames took refuge on the hills.

The plant caught fire from the forest fires. Four hundred men are thrown out of work, and the loss will reach a million and a half. A terrific wind is blowing the blazing boards through the air hundreds of yards. The fire is still burning and efforts are being made to save the immense stove works.

BLOWN TO DEATH.

Hagerstown, Md., May 1.—While a boat on the Chesapeake and Ohio canal was passing through the locks near Williamsport today a heavy wind swept the boat out into the Potomac river. On the boat were Capt. Joseph Kime, of Cumberland; his wife and two daughters, and Harry Newkirk. The wind carried the boat over a 25-foot dam, drowning the eight-year-old daughter of Capt. Kime, fatally injuring Kime, and also badly injuring the others. Two miles aboard escaped by swimming.

MAY DAY CELEBRATED

In New York by Strike of 30,000 Foreign Subway Workers Who Demand Uniform Wages.

New York, May 1.—May Day was ushered in here today with a strike of 30,000 laborers in the big New York subway, which practically tied up all operations and resulted in the subway contractors announcing that they would shut down all operations until Monday. The strikers are nearly all Italians, who demand a uniform wage of $2 a day for skilled and unskilled labor. The contractors claim they are willing to pay this for skilled but not for unskilled workmen.

THREE FELL TO DEATH

BY FALLING OF SCAFFOLDING—TWO ESCAPED BY HANGING TO CROSSES.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 1.—Three men met instant death at the Union Station tonight by the falling of scaffolding on which they were working. Two others had remarkably escaped by hanging by their hands to the narrow iron crosses 75 feet in the air until ladders were raised.

GOD'S RICHEST BLESSINGS

Invoked Upon His School—Beautiful Ceremonies at Cornerstone Laying of Hagerman College.

THE CITY'S DIVINES PARTICIPATE

At Launching of a Noble Institution of Learning—Prospects For a Glorious Future.

The ceremonies yesterday incident to the laying of the corner stone of Prof. B. C. Hagerman's school for young ladies were most appropriate and well attended. There were present upon this interesting and important occasion many of the best-known and leading educators of the Blue Grass.

Lexington should be proud and congratulate herself that Prof. Hagerman decided to locate his school in this city. Lexington has a national reputation as an educational center and the addition of another college of the higher education, such as the name of Hagerman guarantees, is surely one of congratulation to the citizens of this city. Prof. Hagerman has a right to be proud after the many splendid tributes paid him by the speakers yesterday afternoon.

Prof. Hagerman stated at the opening of the exercises yesterday that the industry of the workmen engaged in the construction had been somewhat ahead of the ceremonies, as the stone had already been placed in position. He said that to other lips and other hearts had been left the telling of the work which the college was intended to perform. He had the privilege of being a listener. He said that under the persuasion of many friends he had for a few hours allowed the college to be named the "Hagerman College," but he felt that if it should succeed, that he prayed God that it would, this was too great an honor for him. He then turned to the "Camp Hagerman" and shared the cares and duties of its conduct—his wife. Then, too, he wished by calling it the Campbell-Hagerman, to pay a tribute, though it might be slight, to that good man and educator, Alexander Campbell. Mr. Hagerman stated that there had been place in the box in the corner stone a Bible, that he believed no house could stand unless built upon the word of God.

At the close of his talk President J. W. McGarvey, of the Kentucky University Bible College, in a beautiful prayer, invoked God's blessing on the new institution and its founder. Prof. C. L. Loos, of K. U., was next introduced. He said when Lexington was a little town surrounded by woods a hundred years ago, she was known as a seat of classic education. He paid a high tribute to Prof. Hagerman as a scholar, as a professor under him and a director of educational institutions. Dr. R. O. Kirkwood, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, said that he had always had a high regard for Prof. Hagerman, and now it was even higher, as he knew he had good taste, because there were so many every man and most women knew that a thing could be done well without the Presbyterians. He was most happy in his remarks and closed by congratulating Prof. Hagerman and paying a high compliment to his past work, and asking God's blessing for his future success.

President J. K. Patterson, of State College, was the next speaker. He opened by extending congratulations to Prof. Hagerman upon his success in starting this college. He said that he had, in the face of difficulties, misfortunes and almost disaster been so far successful, that he felt that the enterprise would be successful. That these things would deter many men, but it only made great men more determined to accomplish what they had set out to do. He then spoke of the educational advantages of Lexington, and said that the opening of another

NOMINATION OF OFFICERS

Made and Elections Occur To-day—Old Kentucky Barbecue Enjoyed at Fair Grounds.

The second day's meeting of the American Laryngological Rhinological and Otological Society continued yesterday at the Merrick Lodge Building, carrying out in detail the program as had been arranged. All the papers read were very instructive, as well as entertaining, and this session was very much enjoyed by every one present. The papers and programs were as follows:

"Etiology, Symptomatology and Pathology of Otitis Media Suppurativa Acuta."
"The Treatment of Otitis Media Suppurativa Acuta."
"Etiology, Symptomatology and Pathology of Otitis Media Suppurativa Chronica."
"Treatment of Otitis Media Suppurativa Chronica."
"Treatment of the Complications of Media Otitis Suppurativa."
"The Technique of the Radical Operation for Otitis Media Suppurativa Chronica."

"The Inefficiency of the Wilde's Incision."
"Report of a Case of Recurrent Mastoiditis with Complications."
"Some Unusual Mastoid Cases."
"Two Cases of Thrombosis of the Jugular Bulb; Ligation of Interior Jugular."

"Report of a Case of Mastoid Suppuration, Accompanied with Epithelioma of the Left Ear."
"Some Unusual Cases of Aural Sinusitis."

visited their friends in a body to attend the famous Kentucky barbecue and some of the famous burgoos that has given this State such a reputation. The display of the fine blooded stock as a compliment to the visitors was very much enjoyed by them, and on the whole the afternoon was very pleasantly passed by the delegates who are here in convention. Later the trolly ride given to the ladies to Georgetown over the interurban road proved to be very enjoyable, and a surprisingly large number of the "fellows" left the meeting to accompany their wives on the excursion.

A very important executive session was held during the afternoon and the officers for the society for the coming year were selected and will be placed in nomination to-morrow. The "slate" is as follows:

President—Dr. Norval H. Pierce, Chicago, Ill.

Vice Presidents—Redman W. Payne, San Francisco; George L. Richards, Falls City, Mass.; Dr. Chevalier Jackson, Pittsburg, Pa.; Dr. John T. Woodard, Norfolk, Va.

Secretary—Dr. Wendell C. Phillips, New York.
Treasurer—Dr. Ewing W. Day, Pittsburg, Pa.

Last night the delegates met at the Phoenix Hotel at one of the grandest banquets that has ever been given in this city and gathered about the tables were many of the distin-

THE HORSE IS KING TODAY

Interest All Over State Centers in Running of Kentucky's Classic Derby

Louisville, Ky., May 1.—To-morrow will witness the twenty-ninth annual running of the Kentucky Derby.

Following is a list of the candidates, with their weights, jockeys and owners, that will contest for the rich event:

Early 117, Winkfield, Tichenor & Newgrass.

Bourbon 110, Helgeson, T. C. McDowell.

Woodlake 117, Crowhurst, T. C. McDowell.

Bad News 114, Davis, Woodford & Buckner.

The Picket 110, J. Mathews, Middleton & Junghuth.

Treacy, 110, Landry, T. H. Stevens.

Judge Himes 117, H. Booker, C. H. Ellison.

Banter 122, Dale, C. E. Mahone.

Never before has there been such interest in this event or such a diversity of opinion as to the winner of this annual event of events in Kentucky. Everything is in readiness for the big race and unless all signs fail it will be run over a fast track, with beautiful weather and before a crowd of at least 25,000 enthusiasts.

Early is the favored of the bunch for first place, as much on account of his brilliant work as a two-year-old as on his splendid condition now. On account of the sensational mile in 1:41½, made by Bad News a day or so ago, he is favored by the talent to get away with part of the purse.

Tom McDowell does not say that his entry, Woodlake and Bourbon, will win the race, but his friends assert that when they come under the wire the horse that beats them will have to win the race. Banter is also considered a dangerous factor in the race.

So high is the interest in this city is at the race, that money, Banter, 10 to 1; The Picket, 4 to 1; Bourbon and Woodlake, 6 to 1; Bad News, 10 to 1; Treacy, 20 to 1, and Judge Himes 15 to 1.

The town is full of horsemen and the advance guard of "bookies" have put in their appearance.

Lexington's population to-day will be very materially decreased, owing to the running of the Derby at Louisville. Many of the horsemen have already gone to that city to have a look at the "bang tails" before the running of the race. Several special excursions will be run to Louisville and many private parties will go to witness the most interesting annual event in the thoroughbred horse world of the "Blue Grass."

5,000 MEN AFFECTED.

Bedford, Ind., May 1.—Five thousand men are affected by the strike and consequent shutdown in the quarries and mills at this place. As far as can be learned the men are demanding a readjustment of their wage scale.

WANTS A QUIET SUNDAY

President Objects to Elaborate Preparations Made For His Reception at Sharon Springs.

NEWSPAPER PRINTED ON SILK

Was Presented to Roosevelt By The Kansas City World—Lays Y. M. C. A. Cornerstone.

Topeka, Kas., May 2.—The Commercial Club of Kansas presented President Roosevelt with their greeting engraved on a silver plate. The World, the afternoon paper of Kansas City, gave him an edition of its Thursday's issue, printed entire upon white silk.

A drive through the stock yards of Kansas City gave the President an opportunity of seeing the packing house industry.

More than 20,000 persons crowded into the big hall to listen to him, and throughout the time he was speaking every word he uttered was distinctly heard in the furthest corner of the enclosure.

At Topeka, the President assisted in the cornerstone laying of the Y. M. C. A. building, and in the evening he spoke at the Auditorium before the delegates to the eleventh International conference of the Railroad Department of the Y. M. C. A.

The President's train will remain at Topeka during the night. The first stop tomorrow will be at Manhattan.

OBJECTS TO PLANS FOR SPENDING SUNDAY.

Sharon Springs Kas., May 2.—The committee on arrangements has been notified that the President does not take kindly to the plans that are being made for the presidential party, which is to spend Sunday here. A delegation went to Kansas City early in the week and secured the service of a metropolitan hotel, and then went to the expense of renting a large circus tent for the services.

After making all these arrangements the committee was notified by the President's secretary that everything must be "cut out" as the President must have an absolutely quiet day, and if his wishes are not complied with his car will be sidetracked at another station.

MEXICO.

THE STORY BRIEFLY TOLD.

The story of Mexico's mining is not all prosaic—not all made up of sums in addition and multiplication. About the mining industry of that country there hangs the romance of a prehistoric past; the aroma of stirring times in the world's history making, the fascination that goes with the hunt against the forces of nature; the mysticism which hangs over the barren barrancas and the magic charm that hovers around the pursuit of wealth that may come and go in a single day. The romance of mining in Mexico is richer than that of any other country, for there are hundreds of abandoned and lost mines which await rediscovery. Tales of lost mines in Mexico are not idle dreams, as they are apt to be in the States. In that strangely interesting country the explorer often comes upon the ruins of an ancient church large enough to have accommodated a congregation of 3,000 or 4,000. Close by will be found the remains of old reduction works and large piles of tailings, which unite in telling of a once prosperous mining community. Whence came the ore? Search as you may and there will not be found a trace of tunnel, shaft or beaten track. The explanation is simple—the enormous rainfall of the rainy season. During those four months, especially in the tropical regions, the deluge which daily rolls and tumbles and thunders down the steep sides of the mountains is beyond the imagination of a Northerner. The erosion is therefore very great; the topography of the country undergoes a complete change in a few years. In this way many of the old Spanish mines have been obliterated by erosion, which has also served to uncover new ledges and rich deposits. Prospecting in Mexico, therefore, has an element of chance not found elsewhere.

Mexico has the greatest gold and silver mines in the entire world. Miners of California frequently point with pride to mining properties which have produced $5,000,000 or $6,000,000. In Mexico such a mine would be called a fair pocket. A gold mine is one which has produced from $30,000,000 to $50,000,000, while a really big mine is one which has a record of $100,000,000 or more. And there are a generous number of the latter. Think of a mine that has paid royalties on the production of $1,000,000,000! Such is the Valecuna, the greatest mine in Mexico and in the world. How California would rave over a Guadalupe de los Reyes, which has been worked for 150 years and is still pouring out its wealth at the rate of $100,000 a month. What pride would be felt in Candelaria, opened in 1767, paid to the city of Durango royalty in bullion to the value of $55,000,000 the first ten years, made many fortunes off and on since that time and was finally abandoned; was again reopened by American capital only to again yield millions upon millions, besides disclosing new bodies of ore of fabulous wealth and richness.

Does it pay to invest your savings in mining stock? One often hears people say what's the use of buying a thousand shares in a million-dollar company; it doesn't amount to anything.

Taken at a time when a company is selling its first issue of treasury shares it is no trouble at all to look back over the field of active mining operations and enumerate hundreds of companies that to own 1,000 shares of their stock would mean an income of no small amount.

GET THE CREAM.

The time to make money in any enterprise is between its organization and its first dividends. With the beginning of dividends the price goes up, and while the one who invests thereafter may make a good income, he does not make money.

The beauty of gold and silver mining is that your product is money. The Mina Grande Consolidated Mining and Milling Company has equipped its property with modern machinery of the most approved type and of sufficient capacity to handle at least 200 tons of ore per day, from which operations net profits should be derived of not less than $2,000,000 annually.

The Mina Grande Company has no preferred stock and all stock is fully paid and non-assessable, and you have the positive assurance of a bigger dollar's worth of dividends mined out of the earth for your dollar invested in the Sonora's rich field of bullion than elsewhere. Just think! Six per cent. (6 per cent.) Gold Bonds, interest paid January and July, with equal amount of capital stock given you as a bonus, which will be a source of income to you for a lifetime. If you are interested in mining come and see us. If you are not interested in mining it won't cost you anything to talk it over.

WILL OF LATE CHAS. H. WOOLLEY

Was Filed For Probate Yesterday.
Leaves Majority of Property to His Widow.

The last will and testament of Charles H. Woolley, deceased, was on yesterday filed for record in the Clerk's office of the county. The instrument was fully proven on the oaths of E. B. Hughes and Mrs. Florence M. Woolley, to be wholly in the proper handwriting of the testator.

The Security Trust and Safety Vault Company is named in the will as executor of the estate. The will bears date of April 8, 1902. It directs that after the payment of all of the just debts and the funeral expenses of the deceased, that the house, No. 182 on Limestone street, with all of the furniture, fixtures and other articles of personal property; also all of the live stock, vehicles harness and all other personal property at the said home, be given to his wife, Mrs. Flora M. Woolley, during her life time. She has power to either sell or rent the property and the proceeds of the sale or rent are to be paid to her annually by the executors.

The testator directs that $400 be paid to his sister semi-annually in equal installments during her life, and $300 a year to his grand nephew, Leslie R. Magee, during the life time of the testators wife.

The will directs that Mrs. Woolley shall have the power to dispose of half of the entire estate of the testator, by the last will and testament. At her death the other half is left to his niece, Mrs. Annie M. Magee, if she is alive, and if dead to her children.

$25,000 DAMAGE CASE

OF DOYLE VS. GILMAN WILL PROBABLY GO TO THE JURY TUESDAY.

Just after the convening of Circuit Court yesterday morning the grand and petit juries for June were drawn, and the court clerk and deputies were sworn.

Immediately following the case of J. E. Doyle against C. B. Gilman and others, a suit for $25,000 for alleged conspiracy to injure the oil business of the plaintiff. This case was begun on Wednesday afternoon and was expected that it would be finished by this evening, but it will hardly go to the jury before Tuesday of next week. Mr. Doyle, the plaintiff, was on the stand most of the day yesterday. The case will be taken up at the convening of court at 9 o'clock this morning.

THE "CRESCENTS" WIN.
The "Crescents" defeated the "Kentucky Stars" on the "Crescents" baseball grounds by the score of 10 to 7. The line-up of the "Crescents" was as follows: Harry Stough, short stop; George Weiman, catcher; Ed Owens, pitcher; Ross Walters, first base; Lindsey Shea, second base; Everett Slade, third base; Herman Stevens, center field; Leonard Stough, left field; Jas. Gilroy, right field.

OPERA HOUSE

The Coming of the All-Star Cast. The coming of the all-star cast in "Romeo and Juliet" on next Friday, May 8, continues to attract attention, and from present indications it will draw the large and brilliant audience it deserves.

The engagement here will be one of the important events in the history of the Lexington Opera House. Never has there been seen upon the local stage such an aggregation of stars fittingly selected for the parts they are to play and the characters they are to impersonate as will be seen with the company which is now presenting Shakespeare's immortal love tragedy under the management of Liebler & Company. Kyrie Bellew, who will appear as Romeo, is the acknowledged best Romeo now living in the world, a claim which is fully borne out by his most perfect characterization of this difficult part. As for the Juliet, Eleanor Robson, it is certainly original and everything that Miss Robson has ever undertaken has been so delightful and artistic that nothing will be found wanting in her work. The tour opened on Monday at Albany, N. Y., and the performance has been pronounced the greatest Shakespearean play ever seen in that city.

MR. EDWIN ARDEN

years. It is the opportunity of a lifetime for the theater-goers of this city and the surrounding towns. But twenty-four cities are included in the tour of this production, and Lexington is many times the smallest city that will be visited.

Just where Liebler & Company are to profit is matter for guess work. The salary list of a company including Kyrie Bellew, Eleanor Robson, W. H. Thompson, Eben Plympton, John Kellard, Edwin Arden, George Clark, Frank C. Bangs, W. J. Ferguson, Forrest Robinson, Ada Dwyer, Edmund Breese, Mrs. W. G. Jones, etc., must be simply enormous, and should keep Liebler & Company sitting up nights and figuring energetically to make any money out of their venture.

In addition to the necessary art discrimination required to select such a cast, it must have been very difficult to secure some of these distinguished players to assume the smaller "bits" that several are cast for. The fight for the center of the stage should be a pretty game to the initiated between a collection of rivals of this calibre.

It is absurd, however, to consider the managerial difficulties of "handling" a group of players like this, as insuperable. Fortunately they are ladies and gentlemen and none have more courtesy than dramatic artists of this quality.

The definite date for this city is next Friday, May 8. The advance sale will open at the usual place one day in advance of the usual time, that is next Tuesday morning.

DUAL MEET DECLARED OFF

State College Athletes Injured and Not in Condition and Cancel Event.

FIELD DAY WILL BE HELD AT K. U.

This Afternoon, for Which a Number of Interesting Events Have Been Arranged.

The dual athletic meet between teams from State College and Kentucky University has been called off. owing, it is said, to the injuries of some of the most prominent members of the State College team. The postponement of this event will be a great disappointment to the public generally, as it was being looked forward to with great interest. Capt. Vogt, of the State College team, states that the cadet team will be ready to meet the K. U. boys in about two weeks, and will post a forfeit to that effect.

claim that it is simply a case of back-down on the part of State College. They are very "sore," and say that they would have won the events easily and that State College, knowing this, pulled out.

A prominent member of the K. U. team, in discussing the refusal of State College to meet the K. U. athletes, said:

"When State College cancelled the track meet scheduled with K. U. for this afternoon, she broke the fourth date during this year with her sister institution. State College says she believes in keeping every date she has scheduled, still if every college in the country should follow the pace that she has set, athletics would die out within six months. They claim that several of their men are injured, but I saw the majority of the 'reported' injured and they said that they were ready for the meet. John Vogt, captain of State College track team, said that his team could not meet the K. U. track team because K. U. would have such a walkover that the meet would be a farce. The K. U. manager offered to give State College three other dates, still State College refused.

"Prof. Mustaine said that the physical condition of his men would not stand the strain of such a meet and he would be censured by the public for allowing them to participate in the games.

Field Day is one of the most important athletic events of the year. The public is desirous of seeing track athletics taken up again and this fact alone should be enough to cause State College to meet K. U., even if defeat is staring her in the face. State College has shown her lack of pluck and grit and has backed down to keep the crimson from floating over the blue and white again. The public, as well as the other colleges, will not stand such treatment long, for it will surely disgust the patrons of athletic games."

Kentucky University will hold a work meet at the Fourth street park this afternoon, beginning at 2:30. The men are in fairly good condition and a large crowd is expected out to see the thin-clad athletes do their best to carry off honors. Following is a summary of the events to be contested and the contestants:

100-yard dash—Campbell, Allison, Wilson, Spears, Lord and H. Yancey.

220-yard dash—Fleber, Scott, Roche, W. Yancey, Allison, Campbell.

120-yard low hurdles—Campbell, Byson, H. Yancey, W. Yancey and Lord.

Shot-put—W. Yancey, Woodard, Cantrill, Nichol and Wilking.

Hammer throw—Woodard, W. Yancey, Nichol and H. Yancey, Cantrill.

Pole vault—Darnall, Lord, W. Yancey and H. Yancey.

High jump—Bryson, Nichol, W. Yancey, and Cossaboom.

Broad jump—Nichol, Campbell, Bryson, H. Yancey, Simpson and Lord.

Half mile—Cossaboom, Lord, Allison, Bryson, Guyn, Cook, Goodwin and Daingerfield.

One mile—Cossaboom, Lord, Guyn, Cook, Goodwin, Swain and Karyglon.

Potato race—Fleber, Campbell, Lord and Bryson.

Three-legged race—Fleber and Nichol vs. Wilking and Turner.

Class relay race—Seniors, Allison, Buck, Gibson and Robert Hamilton.

Juniors, W. Yancey, Goodwin, Clarke and H. Yancey. Sophomores, Cook, Cossaboom, Hamilton, Nichol, Freshman, Bryson, Campbell, Guyn and Wilson.

Preps, Daingerfield, Jett, Willmott and Waggoner. Sub-preps, Triplett, Mackney, Turner and Gayle Spencer.

The latter event will create great excitement and much interest is being taken in the race. Each team has been hard at work. The general classes have been practicing yells and songs, and have selected flags with which they will try to wave their respective teams on to victory. A small admission fee of 15 cents will be charged.

CRIMSON BIRDS WIN AGAIN.

Kentucky University Ball Team Defeats Georgetown College Making Fourth Straight Victory.

Kentucky University's base ball team met and defeated the crack Georgetown College team yesterday afternoon at the former's ball park on West Fourth street. The game was a rattling good one, creating much excitement and enthusiasm.

The Red Birds had their usual bad first inning, allowing Georgetown College to score two runs. But after the first inning they got down to work and played a great game. Their stick work was especially good and shows that the team is made up of a good bunch of hitters. The Georgetown College pitcher is one of the best college slab men in Kentucky. Still the K. U. Boys lined out fourteen hits, including three two-baggers, a three-bagger and a home run.

Two double plays were the result of fast work by H. Yancey on second, Craft and W. Yancey. The score was tied in the third inning by the K. U. boys, the score standing two to two for three more innings. The Georgetown boys then took the lead, but the K. U. boys were right after them and the score at the end of the seventh inning was six to five in favor of Georgetown.

They could not score in their half of the eighth, but singles by Montgomery, Roche, and a home run by Hogan Yancey, coupled with errors on the part of Georgetown College, put K. U. to the good by the score of eleven to six, the same being the result of the game as Georgetown could not connect with Burdett's benders to any advantage. Roch has gotten into the game and showed up well, getting two hits and making two runs.

The Georgetown College boys fought hard to save the day, but met their conquerors. Florence, catcher for the Georgetown team, played a star game and batted well. He is one of the best all-around amateurs in the State and very popular in Lexington.

This makes the fourth straight victory for the K. U. team and if they succeed in getting a second game with State College the public may expect to see a hard-fought contest, as both teams are playing at their present.

The K. U. team leaves on its northern trip next Thursday morning and will be gone about two weeks. They are desirous of playing State College before they leave and firmly believe that they can defeat them if given a show.

WHEEL HORSE OF DEMOCRACY.

Senator McCreary Regards Parker
or Gorman as Acceptable Democratic Presidential Candidates

Senator James B. McCreary was in the city yesterday en route to Louisville, where he went to meet his associates in the land and coal business, in which he is largely interested. He will also incidentally take in the Derby.

The Senator was in fine health and spirits and spoke very hopefully of the Democratic future. He is certain that Roosevelt will be nominated by his party, but thinks if the Democrats will put up a man upon whom the whole party can unite they can win. Such men as Cleveland, Bryan and Hill he regards as out of the question, but thinks either Parker of New York, or Gorman, or Maryland, will prove acceptable to all classes of Democrats. "If I had the power to name the President of the United States," said he, "I would without hesitation name Senator Gorman for he is as fully equipped as any man for the high position; but I suspect from what I can hear that Parker is the most available man. Leading New Yorkers say he can carry that State over Roosevelt or any one else, and he is an excellent man. With either of them and a platform in opposition to trusts for a thorough tariff reform and for an economical administration of the government, we can and I believe will win."

The Senator said he was taking no part in the State races, though very warm for his countyman, John B. Chenault, for Auditor. He always supports the ticket and will, in the proper time, make a number of speeches for it.

GOOD LIVING

Quite often results in bad health, because what is termed "good living" is usually the gratification of the palate without reference to the nutritive of the body. When the good liver is a business man and rises from a full meal to plunge at once into work requiring mental effort the result is almost sure to be disastrous, because digestion draws upon the same nervous forces which are employed in thought. As time the stomach becomes diseased, the processes of digestion and nutrition are imperfectly performed and there is a physical breakdown.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It eliminates the effete poisonous matter which originates in the system as a consequence of imperfect digestion. It gives sound health to the whole body.

"I wish to say to the world that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has proved a great blessing to me," writes Mrs. Ellen E. Bacon, of Shutesbury, Franklin Co., Mass. "Prior to September, 1897, I had declined for my stomach trouble for several years, going through a course of treatment without any real benefit. In September, 1898, I had very sick spells and grew worse; could eat but little. I commenced in September, 1897, to take Dr. Pierce's medicine, and in a short time I could eat and work. I have gained twenty pounds in two months."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

T. T. HEDGER.

Of Scott county, as a candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture, subject
 to the will of the Democratic party
 primary, election Saturday, May 9.

HENRY M. BOSWORTH

is a candidate for State Treasurer,
 subject to the primary election, May 9, 1903, and solicits the support of all Democrats.

THE REPUBLICAN IDEA.

After reproducing a portion of the editorial comment made by The Democrat yesterday, our afternoon contemporary, the Lexington Leader, has
 the following to say:

"If the Howard verdict is unsatisfactory to The Morning Democrat, it has only its own people to blame; the jury was a Democratic jury to the bone and could have given Howard
 the death sentence if it had desired
 to do so, even in spite of the remarkable testimony of Henry Youtsey. We are deeply sorry that this is another one of those instances in which our esteemed Democratic contemporary finds it necessary to find fault with its own people."

This remarkable effusion is but another instance of the ever-prevalent
 thought dominating the minds of Republican politicians that our entire
 judicial system is contaminated by political influences and that all juries
 are drawn, not in accordance with law,
 but because of the political affiliations
 of the individual juror. When The Democrat affirmed that the verdict in the Howard case was unsatisfactory
 it was without thought of party influences, and reference thereto was made with the view to demonstrating
 that politics cut no figure in the verdict as the only Republican on the jury
 and who might have been expected to cause a mistrial in Howard's behalf,
 voted him guilty of murder on the first ballot and in a similar manner voted
 to inflict the death penalty.

Like all Republican partisan organs,
 the Leader is ever ready to attribute
 to others its own inherent vices. Republican politics has warped the entire
 roof of the judicial system of the Federal government by its appointment's
 to the bench, ever ready to sacrifice
 the best interests of the people in the hope of obtaining therefrom a partisan decision. During the brief though spurious regime of W. S. Taylor in Kentucky, signed pardons were found in the pockets of prospective murderers, and twice did a partisan Republican Court of Appeals undo the work of the Scott and Franklin Circuit Courts

 because the "appellants" were of the Republican faith and not for the legal merit of the case. What is bred in the bone must perforce make its appearance in the flesh and in the views expressed by the Leader the people are given to understand just what to expect should the Republican machine
 again hold sway in Kentucky.

Irrespective of the Leader's feelings
 in the matter, The Democrat reaffirms that the verdict was unsatisfactory, to Democrats and Republicans alike. The crime of which Howard has thrice been adjudged guilty forms
 the blackest page in the history of the Commonwealth. The crime is of such a nature that no half-way ground,
 no halting place, no compromise,
 possible. If he is guilty then to merely confine him in the penitentiary is a violation of the law of God and man.
 There can be no begging the question.
 The jury voting him guilty, Howard
 should have been hanged, otherwise
 have said by their verdict "Not guilty."
 and he should be set at liberty.

If the Leader can, for a moment,
 divest itself of the partisan idea as applied to our system of trials by juries, it will in every truth be compelled to accept and admit the truth
 of the interpretation herein expressed.
 The only hypothesis upon which our contemporary can approve of the verdict is for the reason that Howard's
 neck is not to be broken and the culprit permitted to die a natural death,
 that which he denied to Governor Goebel.

THE DEMOCRATIC TRIUMPH.

If a just comparison could be made
 with the conditions that now surround
 our form of government, as interpreted and administered by the Republican taskmasters at Washington, and
 the conditions that prevail in monarchical government, it would not take long to understand that the Federal machinery is rapidly growing
 more and more complex, drifting further away from the simplicity inaugurated by our fathers, and that representative government in America, as
 at present applied, is in danger of breaking down under its own weight.

Democracy would simplify it in all things and first dispense with expensive and unnecessary offices created by the mere will of the Republican powers that he instead of following
 their example of creating more to provide a soft snap for some partisan worker. The great army of tax-caters that are now hanging on the Federal government, like barnacles to a ship,
 are constantly increasing, and constitute a vast, non-productive army for whose support of continuous drain is made upon American industry. There is too much red-tape that injures
 rather than assists Justice in the manipulation of her sword and scales.

All governments, whether they be municipal, state or national, are vast corporations, in which every citizen
 is a stockholder, sharing the public gains or losses. If the government of our fathers is to be preserved it needs
 simplification and a reduction to a business basis in the conduct of its affairs. The primary doctrine of the Republican party, and which has permeated its root and branches, is that public treasure is legitimate spoil, and
 the doctrine must be weeded out of American political life. In Kentucky
 this very principle has been applied
 and from it the Democracy represented by Governor Beckham has been strengthened.

FOR STATE TREASURER.

It is gratifying to know that the Democracy of Fayette county is now
 actively espousing the cause of Henry M. Bosworth, ex-Sheriff, and a Democrat of the most pronounced type and
 a sterling character, in his candidacy
 for State Treasurer.

From now on until the polls are closed no effort should be spared to bring him that success which he so richly deserves. The services he has rendered to the party, to the State, to his home county, and the people at large, are never forgotten. They were given willingly, unsparingly, without hope of reward or monetary gain, and
 to give him the office to which he now
 aspires is but a poor compensation for his labors.

At all times and in all places he
 is a gentleman of the purest type,
 with the courage of his convictions,
 absolute honesty in all business affairs, whose word is as good as his bond, and altogether a man peculiarly fitted for the position of trust he is now seeking at the hands of the people of Kentucky.

Too much cannot be said or done
 in his behalf and The Democrat urges his nomination as being an honor to
 the party to have him on the ticket,
 a credit to Fayette county, and a well-
 deserved reward.

The price of silver bullion has advanced about 3 cents per ounce during the last three months, and dealers
 are looking for a still further advance.

The rise is attributed in part to the purchases by our government for the Philippine coinage and in part to a more active demand outside of the United States. Inasmuch as the purchases for the Philippine coinage are not to exceed $2,000,000 per month,
 the rise must be due mainly to outside demand. What this demand is for does not clearly appear, but it
 may be that the recent unprecedented cheapness of silver has led to a freer use of that metal for other than monetary purposes.

The Louisville Post is to go into liquidation and be sold. Mr. Richard W. Knott was appointed general manager by the Columbia Finance and Trust Company, and the affairs of the paper will go on as usual. Under the law a new company will be formed to conduct the paper when the decree
 of sale is entered. At the meeting of the stockholders it was found that W.
 N. Haldeman owned an eighth interest in the Post, which was a great surprise to most people. It is claimed that the paper is not a money maker.

The Lexington Leader is still doing business "resenting" at the same old stand. It "resents" when it reads of "greatness in youth" as being "fierce ridicule" in it partisan eyes. It would resent the truth if antagonistic to its own political interests. But facts
 are facts, and if our esteemed contemporary would do more "repenting"
 for its political wickedness and less "re-
 senting" there might be hope for its redemption.

General Miles' Philippine report
 probably will accomplish little in the way of correcting the abuses complained of, but it will greatly advantage numerous patriots who are begin-

college for young women was one
 upon which the city should be congratulated. He said that in Kentucky
 and her sister State, Tennessee,
 there was more pure Anglo-Saxon
 blood than in any other State of the Union. Turning to Prof. Hagerman,
 he said: "In placing the Bible in the corner stone of this building you have started right, and if you go on as you have started you must succeed, but if you should turn from the word of God, the sagacity of man is unable to tell what the end will be."

President Patterson further said:
 "As the representative of State College, of which institution I have the honor to be president, I tender to you
 its hearty support and co-operation
 and if you go on as you have started,
 every one will say come forward, my
 brother, do your best, and wish you God speed."

Prof. S. M. Jefferson, of the K. U.
 Bible College, then spoke for a few minutes. He advised against numbers
 of pupils, but rather for quality.

Dr. Edwin Muller, of the First Presbyterian Church, made a short address, closing by asking God's blessing
 on the institution, its president and his co-workers and those who are to receive their education within its walls.

Rev. Preston Blake, of the First Baptist Church, was the last speaker.

He said that Lexington had the reputation of training the finest horses in the world. He knew that she trained
 the minds of the most splendid men and women in the world. He understood that the man who had started
 the investigation into the rottenness
 of politics in Missouri was a graduate of K. U. "Lexington should be congratulated that Prof. Hagerman has decided to remain here. I have not only known him for a number of years, but the woman who has had the patience to put up with me and manage me for the past twelve years
 was one of his pupils, and if he is going to turn out such women, the young ladies of his college will be greatly in demand." He closed with congratulations to Prof. and Mrs. Hagerman.

The interesting ceremonies of the laying of the corner stone and of the christening of the Campbell-Hagerman College were then closed with the benediction.

AROUND THE FESTAL BOARD

guished eye, throat and nose special-lists of the country. Ten of the local physicians and Judge James Mulligan, the only "outsiders," were also in attendance and responded to toasts. All of the responses were delightful and many of them replete
 with wit, but the one that created
 the most laughter was "Why did the elephant allow Noah to vaccinate
 him?" Judge Mulligan talked on "Kentucky's Contribution Advancing
 Medical Science Through the Trans-
 sylvania University. Drs. Duly, Mc-Dowell, and the Greatest of Them
 All, Dr. Peters: Its Sentiments and Traditions."

The feasting lasted until the wee
 hours of the morning and the banquet
 closed with the following song, sung
 to the tune of "Mr. Dooley." The poem was written by one of the delegates of the meeting:

There was a Rhinotologist,
 Who lived in Lexington,
 He's cut off all the turbinates
 And of tonsils left not one.
 A barrel full of adenoids
 He's got in alcohol,
 And if you don't know who he is You've only got to call—on

O, Dr. Stucky, a dear old Stucky
 You're the finest man the Bluegrass
 ever knew,
 You're sympathetic, and most magnetic,
 You dear old Stucky, Stuckydoo-
 dled.

A lot of laryngologists
 With nothing else to do,
 Thought they'd invade Kentucky
 And taste the native brew.
 So now fill our glasses up,
 If you can't guess who to
 We'll tell you, there is only one,
 The magic Stucky who—is—
 Chorus.

Our president's name is Stucky,
 And we love him through and
 through;
 We've come down to Kentucky
 To express our love so true.
 For many years we've known his
 worth,
 Too great it is to tell,
 So we've named him for our president,
 He's earned his title well—
 Chorus.

No North, no South, no East, no West,
 But brothers all are we,
 And Stucky finds us here to share
 His hospitality.

Administrator's Public Sale of City Property

Tuesday, May 5, 1903.

I will, as administrator of the estate of C. Y. Bean, deceased, sell at public outcry to the highest bidder on the above date on the premises at the hour of 11 o'clock, a. m., the residence and grounds in the City of Lexington, Ky., on North Limestone street, near the crossing of Third street,
 Said property fronts Limestone street about 180 feet by about 140 feet to a wide alley. On it is a two-story brick dwelling and outhouses. This property will first be offered in separate parcels, or lots, and then as a whole, accepting the highest amount bid, as the result may determinately or as a whole. Terms of sale will be one-third cash the remainder in equal payments in one and two years from date of sale.
 Notes to bear 6 per cent. interest from date until paid, and a lien retained on property conveyed. This is possibly the last chance to buy building lots in this popular section of the city.

CHAS. W. BEAN, Administrator.
 JERRY DELPH, Auctioneer.

And a hostess true and kind,
 And a "nipple" of old Bourbon,
 Makes us leave dull care behind.

Chorus.
 The election of officers will be held
 to-day and the remainder of the program will be carried out as has been arranged. During the afternoon
 conveyances will be secured and the delegates will be driven to many of
 the places of interest in this community. "Ashland," the old home of the immortal Henry Clay will be visited and many of the stock farms. The meeting will close this afternoon and a number of the specialists will leave
 with their wives for Mammoth Cave.

NELSON—CUNNINGHAM.

Harrodsburg, Ky., May 1.—W. C.
 Nelson and Mr. Merritt Cunningham,
 of this county, were married at Lawrenceburg, Ky. They are both well known through this county. The groom has for a number of years been Deputy County Clerk and is one of the best-known business men at Sal-
 visa, this county.

FAIR ELECTION ASSURED.

Covington, Ky., May 1.—The Kenton County Democratic Executive Committee selected the officers to serve at the coming primary for the selection of State nominees. Two hundred and fifty-eight sheriffs, clerks
 and judges are required. In the election of names were taken from the lists submitted by the McInerney and the Pugh factions, and many representative men are in the list, insur-

 ing a fair election and an honest count. The action of the committee is regarded as tending to reunite the factions in Kenton county.

Irregularities

CHICAGO, ILL., 5902 Indiana Avenue, Sept. 25, 1902.

Wine of Cardui is superior to anything I have ever tried for irregularities. Three years ago I noticed that I became irregular but I paid little attention to it. Gradually the trouble became serious and affected my general health. The flow became scanty and very painful and I sought the doctor's aid. I soon found, however, that his prescriptions did not have the desired effect and when a friend recommended Wine of Cardui
 I decided to try it and procured a bottle. It helped me at once and I felt greatly encouraged when I noticed the change for the better. At my next menstrual period the pain was less and the flow better and within four months I was perfectly well, regular and without pain.

This is over a year ago
 and I have not suffered any pains or trouble since. Accept my sincere thanks for your efficient remedy.

Miss Adelaide Adams

Because Wine of Cardui cures women so simply, so quickly and so effectively it is the favorite medicine of women today. This medicine brings women health and freedom from sickness by the most simple process—Nature's own way.

While physicians examine and operate, Wine of Cardui works a cure without the humiliating publicity of an operation or the danger of the use of a knife.

Wine of Cardui strikes at the root of female trouble. It regulates the menstrual flow, making the function regular and healthy, an aid to health instead of a menace. A profuse flow weakens the blood and suppression poisons it. Wine of Cardui, by regulating the flow, gives life and strength to all the generative organs. Bearing down pains disappear and ovarian pains and weakness give way to health.

If you are suffering female weakness you should look after your case at once. All the organs are in sympathy and you cannot tell what a simple case of irregularity will run into if you let it alone.

Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. Take it in your home, in private, and you will thank Miss Adams for her advice.

 visory Department, The

JULIA M. MET DEFEAT

At the Overwhelming Odds of 1 to 5—Cameron Won Newton Stakes.

FAVORUS TAKES ANOTHER RACE.

All Racing Interest Now Centers in Running of Derby at Louisville To-day.

AT JAMAICA.

Jamaica R. I., May 1.—The feature event on the card to-day was the Newton stakes, which Cameron, at the top heavy odds of 1 to 2, took easily. King Faine, the crack selling plater, added another race to his credit to-day. One of the greatest surprises of the day was the defeat of Julia M.

KENTUCKY'S ARTIST

No. 1455, Vol. IV., A. S. H. R.

The premium saddle stallion will make the present season at my stable, No. 123 East Short Street, Lexington, Ky., and will serve mares at the low price of $35.00 to insure a living colt. Lion retained on colt until money is paid.

KENTUCKY'S ARTIST.

Is a beautiful chestnut, eight years old, with three white feet, 15½ hand high, a perfect model in form, with great style and action.

Kentucky's Artist was sired by Artist Montrose, No. 51, winner of the great Sweepstakes prize at the World's Fair, he by Artist, No. 75, he by King William, 67, he by Washington Denmark, 64, by Gaines Denmark, 61, Denmark foundation stock. Kentucky Artist's first dam Julia Thomas, by Pat Denmark, he by Sumpter Denmark; second dam Lucy Thomas by Nero, he by Thompson's Morgan; third dam Cooper, by Patrick's Copper Bottom; fourth dam Dovey, by Barney Whip, of Howard county, Missouri, he by Blackburn's Whip, of Kentucky.

Winner of more blue ties than any stallion in Kentucky.

Winning the blue tie at Kentucky State Fair, Louisville in 1902, also the Missouri State Fair at St. Louis.

As a breeder it is wonderful the satisfaction of my patrons, for every one having a living colt by Kentucky's Artist is breeding back without exception.

This horse will not be peddled at stud shows. I will be glad to show him to any one at my stable and invite lovers of fine stock to come and see him before breeding.

Kentucky's Artist is surely regarded by the best judges in the Blue-grass country as the most perfect galloped stallion in the State.

Mares kept at reasonable prices, either grazed or grain fed.

GOSSIP FROM SOCIAL CIRCLES

DERBY DAY.

And so today is Derby day, the great day in the calendar of Kentucky sports! For weeks the event has been talked of and looked forward to; the weather man has been besieged with questions, and bribes of money and of smiles have been offered to him galore, if he will only promise sunshine. Dressmakers and milliners throughout the State have sat up nights that some sweet maid may look her best for this, Kentucky's great event. Have you never been to a Louisville Derby? Then, for goodness sake, be one of the merry throng today. It is such a good natured throng, no discomforts worry; you may begin by holding on to the bell rope of a crowded car and end by holding on in a crowded car, but you will not mind; you are out on the greatest holiday of the year and you mean to enjoy it all. Early this morning, about 4 o'clock, if you should have rooms near Churchill Downs, you will begin to hear the rumbling of wheels and if you should peep out you would see the country people coming to the races. There is something quite pathetic in it—but what hasn't its pathetic side? The infield is free on Derby Day and to secure good places, one must come early, and all the family finery is aired today, taken individually, the glaring greens and reds are beautiful, but the bright bits later go to help out in the great kaleidoscope of color at the races. Later in the day the coaches and carriages with their aristocratic occupants go by. The prettiest women in this State noted for their beautiful women, are wearing toilettes that might grace the New York Horse Show, the English Derby or the Grand Prix at Long Champs. At first they will look languidly on at the "passing show" from the tops of the coaches, from their boxes, or from the club house veranda; but when the races are on the current of excitement sweeps all class distinctions away and the pretty girl in the box whom you had looked at with the admiration of the moth for the star will nod her approval at you when you toss your hat in the air and yell for the horse she is backing also. All great race meetings look much alike. There is the beautiful green of the turf winding like a broad white ribbon around it, the great grand stand crowded with eager people scarcely a space seemingly between the lowest step and the sky line where there is not a human being; the miles of coaches and carriages the hurry and bustle around the betting sheds; the kings of the day, the pretty thoroughbreds, are stalking around in the paddocks, waiting for the bell when they may throw aside their blankets and carry the colors that will perhaps be world-famous from this race. Oh! it is a great day, and one that will be talked about for months to come, and even if you have to count the ties coming home, I am sure you've had the race for your money, and what do you care?

CALENDAR.

Col. and Mrs. James E. Pepper will entertain at luncheon today in honor of the Laryngological, Rhinological and Otolological Society, who are here for their annual convention.

On account of the illness of Mrs. Charles Short the open meeting and tea at the Woman's Club, which was to have been this afternoon, has been postponed.

tea this afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock, at the residence of the president, Mrs. Avery S. Winston, on North Broadway. Everything is being done to make the event an attractive one. There will be home candles and cakes for sale. Ten cents admission will be charged and refreshments will be served. All are cordially invited.

HALL-VAN ARSDALL WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Annie Hopple Hall, of Franklin county and Mr. David Praig Van Arsdall, of Harrodsburg, took place at the Christian Church in Frankfort Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Gano Buckner, of Harrodsburg, assisted by the Rev. George Darsie, of Frankfort. The bride wore white satin, trimmed in duchess lace, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Laura Hall, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Edward M. Breen, of Louisville, was best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Maud Marcum, of Catlettsburg; Edna Shed, of Cincinnati; Neva Williams and Florence Van Arsdall, of Harrodsburg; Hattie Scott and Katie Mayhall, of Frankfort. The groomsmen were: Messrs. Ellie Gaines, Cecil Farmer, of Frankfort; Paul Goddard, Garnett Sullivan, Gathier Van Arsdall, of Harrodsburg, and Crouley Elliott, of Lexington.

Miss Jessie Neely, of this city, assisted with the wedding music, playing on her violin several selections.

Mrs. George Whitfield Hall, the bride's mother, entertained the bridal party and a few relatives and friends at the Capital Hotel after the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Van Arsdall left for a trip South, after which the will reside in Harrodsburg.

THEATRE PARTIES.

Among the theatre parties for "Old King Cole" were Mrs. F. A. Daingerfield's box party, the guests of which were: Misses Henderson, Bessie and Elizabeth Daingerfield, Dean and Mrs. Baker P. Lee, Miss Anderson of Virginia, Miss Stevens, Mr. Hogan Yancey, Mr. Henry, of Arizona.

In Mrs. George Draper Kelly's box were: Mrs. Henry Martyn Skillman, Mrs. Jack McCormick of St. Louis, Mr. little Miss Angeline McCormick and Master Winston Skillman.

Mrs. Burris A. Jenkins and children occupied a box. With them were Mr. Sellin, Miss Fannie Webb, Miss Lotie Webb, Miss Mildred Love and Miss Walby were in a theatre party.

LOVELACE-HARRISON WEDDING.

Mr. Charles B. Harrison, of Covington, Ky., son of Mr. Joseph Harrison, of this city, and Miss Nonie Lovelace, of Greenwood, Ky., were married Tuesday at Greenwood. The wedding was a pretty one, witnessed by a large crowd of relatives and friends. Their only attendants were Miss Josie Lovelace and Mr. Julian Sargent. After the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left for Covington, where they will reside. The bridegroom is well known here, where he has many friends who will be interested in his happiness and will congratulate him. He is filling the position of passenger brakeman on the L. & N. railroad.

Just received, a new shipment of the Phipps & Atchison and Gage Brothers Hats. They are the swellest goods every shown in the South. Remember, Miss Thronsen, of Chicago, has charge of the Hair Dressing and Manicuring Department.

PERSONALS.

Miss Julia Daingerfield and Miss Jay Daingerfield are expected home Sunday from Hendersonville, N. C., where they have had a delightful visit.

Mrs. Dwight Ripley, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who has been the guest of Mrs. William K. Massie for a short visit, is now the guest of Mrs. William Rhodes.

Miss Lettie Wood, of Louisville, is expected today to be the guest of Miss Anne Pickett.

Hon. and Mrs. Claude M. Johnson are expected Tuesday to be guests of their daughters, Mrs. Lewis F. Brown and Mrs. R. Craig Falconer. They have just returned from London, England, and come at once to Lexington, only stopping in New York for Miss Rosa Vertner Johnson's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Scott Briggs, of Frankfort, are expected today to be guests of Mrs. Briggs' father, Mr. Joseph Scott.

One of the brightest and most attractive visitors in the city is little Miss Angeline McCormick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCormick, and granddaughter of Mrs. Anna Bridge, of St. Louis, who are guests of Mrs. Avery Winston and Mrs. W. M. Martyn Skillman, Jr. Besides having an unusually bright intellect, this little four-year-old maiden is very dainty and lovely, with brown eyes, bronze red hair and the creamiest of complexions. She is quite talented, and her performance on the pianola will be one of the musical features of the entertainment to be given by the Daughters of the Confederacy this afternoon.

Mrs. George Baker Long, of Buffalo, N. Y., who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Magee, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. C. L. Carpenter, of Paris; Mrs. Mrs. Finley, Miss Ida May Finley, Miss Florence Sinclair, of George-

Mr. H. W. Fuller, general passenger agent of the C. & O. railroad, who was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Geo. W. Barney, yesterday, left last evening for Washington, D. C.

Miss Jennie Speyer reached home Thursday evening from a delightful trip to Chicago, Ill., and other Western points.

Mrs. David Prewitt, of "Dunreath," is the guest of Miss Belle Pearson.

Miss Dove Embry and Mr. William R. Embry are in Lancaster, where they went to attend the dance given in honor of Miss Christine Bradley.

Mrs. Thos. Combs and daughter, Miss May Combs, have returned from Mt. Sterling, where they went to attend the wedding of Miss Rilda Horton and Mr. H. Bruce Duff, which took place Thursday at the bride's home, Rev. Lee performing the ceremony.

Mr. Oscar Mitchell, of Cincinnati, was a guest here yesterday.

Dr. Chas. W. Richardson, of Washington, D. C., a distinguished guest to the convention held here, will leave today for his home.

Mr. R. H. Halley, of Cincinnati, a prominent railroad official of the Union Pacific road, was a guest here Friday.

CLARENCE E. WOODS.

The above is a good likeness of Senator McCreary's assistant secretary, who on yesterday entered upon his new duties. The Senator did himself proud in making this appointment, for he never had a more loyal supporter in his political ambitions or a more faithful and constant friend. Mr. Woods is a polished gentleman, a writer of recognized ability, and will prove a capable and valuable aid to his chief.

Mr. Woods is now Grand Recorder of the Greek College Society of the Sigma Nu and editor of the Delta, the official organ of that society.

just reached here of a fatal duel with
Tennessee line from Lamb's Ferry
pistols, which occurred across the Tennessee line from Lamb's Ferry,
as a result of which J. R. Mefford, a farmer, and F. Osborne are dead.

Words passed between the men over some nails. Osborne went into his home near by and returned with a pistol, which he emptied. He turned to run, but Mefford, mortally wounded, fired at the fleeing man with deadly effect. Both died shortly afterward.

CHICAGO PROVISIONS.

Chicago, May 1.—Wheat opened
steady to-day along with the cables,
with July unchanged to a shade higher at 72 1/2¢@72 3/4¢ to 72 3/4¢. Sellers
by local traders on favorable weather
reports. The case of tone
early, July selling off to 72¢, but later,
on covering by shorts, the price
advanced to 72 1/2¢. Minneapolis and Duluth reported receipts of 163 cars,
which, with local receipts of thirty-
two cars (none of contract grade),
made a total for the three points
of 195 cars, against 167 last week and 202 a year ago.

The corn market was steady to a trifle easier early, with July unchanged to 1 1/2¢ lower at 45¢ to 45 1/4¢. Selling by local traders, influenced by good weather reports, developed further weakness and July went off to 44 1/4¢. There was only a light trade and no feature to the market. Local receipts were 201 cars, with six of contract grade.

Oats opened easier on improved
weather and increased receipts, July
being unchanged to a shade lower at 31 1/4¢@31 1/2¢ to 31 1/2¢, and on scattering selling with light demand, the price held steady at 31 1/4¢. Local receipts were 171 cars.

Provisions were irregular, with commission houses inclined to sell on increased hog receipts. There was fair trade at the opening, with all July products off 2 1/4¢, pork being $17.12 1/2¢, with lard $9.37 1/2¢, and ribs
$9.47 1/2¢.

WEATHER

FAIR

Washington, May 2.—Indications for Kentucky and the Blue Grass: FAIR AND WARMER SATURDAY; SUNDAY INCREASING CLOUDINESS.

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER.

The following weather data was recorded at the United States weather bureau at the State College yesterday: Maximum temperature, 48. Minimum temperature, 34. Mean temperature, 40. Below normal, 20. Precipitation, .00. Deficiency since January 1, .75.

AT POINT OF DEATH

At 3 o'clock this morning reports from the bedside of Mrs. Mary D. Short, at St. Joseph's Hospital, are to the effect that she is sinking rapidly and her condition is such that she is not expected that she will survive until daylight. Several days ago Mrs. Short was successfully operated on for appendicitis, but later peritonitis set in, since which time grave doubts as to her recovery have been felt by her physicians and family.

ANOTHER SCHORR PURCHASE

John W. Schorr, of Memphis, purchased of J. N. Camden, of Hartland, the yearling chestnut filly by Handsome, dam Ennani, by Enquirer, and the yearling bay filly, by Handsome, dam Klondike, by Longstreet. Price, $2,000.

These purchases give Mr. Schorr a total of eighteen head purchased during his present trip to the Blue Grass. The number cost him about $18,000.

SECOND DAY

Of Dedication Exercises at St. Louis Marked by Decrease in Attendance.

St. Louis, May 1.—"International Day," the second of the trio devoted to the dedication of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, broke fair with promise of better weather than that of yesterday.

The day was devoted to greetings to and responses by representatives of foreign nations which will have buildings at the fair, the proceedings constituting the dedication of the foreign section.

The Liberal Arts building, where the exercises took place, still wore its dress of yesterday—the mingled colors of Spain, France and the United States—and in the speeches the trinity of interests in the exposition was noted.

A Panhandle train was derailed at Columbus, Ohio, and several persons were injured.

STRANGE DISAPPEARANCE

Of Ten-Year-Old Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hoal Baffles Police

NO CLEW TO HER WHEREABOUTS

Was Forced Against Her Will to Attend School—May Be With Sister in Pennsylvania.

"What has become of little Leona Hoal?" is on the tongue of every resident of the southwestern part of the city who are acquainted with the beautiful little ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hoal, who live on Patterson street, extended. The child disappeared last Wednesday, just after she left her home for school and nothing has been heard of her since that time.

The disappearance of the child and her whereabouts has puzzled the police department more than any case that has been presented to them to work up since the "Hawkins murder," for they can find absolutely no trace of her and have no clew whatever to work on. Although unsuccessful, they have not despaired of finding the little girl, for her heart-broken parents. Yet they were just as much in the dark last night concerning her whereabouts as they have been since she disappeared three days ago.

Last night at 12 o'clock the Democrat reporter called upon Mr. Hoal at his home to ascertain if he had heard anything concerning the missing child. The representative was greeted by a father sick with grief, and the broken-hearted mother anxiously waiting for some news, good or bad from their lost one. The only information they could give was that they had not heard one word from their child since last Wednesday, and in tears told the reporter the sad story of her disappearance.

"Last Wednesday morning she left home as usual for school, but she left her books at the house of a neighbor and went away, where no one knows, but she has gone and no trace of her has been found," was Mr. Hoal's unvarnished story. That was all the parents could tell about her disappearance, as that was all there was to tell.

The police would give out no information about her, but it was learned from the Humane Society that she had once been under their surveillance several weeks ago. At that time she was employed by Mrs. McGrath, of West Main street, to work for her of evenings after school. While thus employed she was reported to the Humane Society as being a wayward child, and not attending school. The society took up her case and visited her parents, who were found to be people of moderate means and they gladly permitted Agent Cook to place her in school and keep her there. Their promise was faithfully carried out and since that time she has been attending school regularly. Little Leona, however, went to school under protest and has been heard to remark by a number of her playmates, "I will kill myself rather than go to school," but her parents do not think that she would dare to carry out her threat. On the day the child disappeared Mrs. Clunker, who lives on West Main street, claims to have missed $20, and reported to the police that she was of the opinion that little Leona, who was at her house the day before, took the money, but this story is not given any credence by her parents, for she was never known to take any money, although she has many opportunities to do so.

She has a married sister living in Pennsylvania, and it is thought she may have gone there to keep from going to school, but no trace of her purchasing a ticket at any of the railroad stations could be found and this theory is generally discredited by those looking for her.

The tender age of the child would make her easy prey for some vicious creatures, but such a thing as her abduction does not seem reasonable, as she is so well known in the part of the city in which she lived. She would have been certainly apprehended if she had gone to any of the large cities as the police departments throughout country have been notified to look out for her.

YOUTSEY ONLY CORROBORATED.

One of the jurors, in talking to a Journal reporter yesterday, said that while all the jurors believed Henry Youtsey had told the truth, they had not based their verdict upon his testimony alone. "We thought," said he, "that there was an abundance of evidence of Howard's guilt outside of Youtsey's evidence, and what he told was merely a piling up of proof conclusive.—Frankfort Journal.

A CRUEL SLANDER.

Walton, the Lexington editor, has been confounded by a reporter with Walton, the president of a brick making company. As the one makes bricks and the other is a past master in the art of throwing them, the mistake is excusable.—Glasgow Times.

DUDLEY SCHOOL CHORUS

PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE BY PUBLIC REHEARSAL LAST EVENING.

One of the most delightful occasions ever given during the progress of the school year was the public rehearsal of the Dudley School Chorus in the chapel last evening.

A large audience composed of patrons and friends of the school and music lovers attracted by the quiet "tip" that some excellent choral work would be heard, enjoyed the excellent program which had been prepared, and which was so thoroughly and artistically rendered by the chorus.

Prof. C. F. Croxton, musical director of the city schools, has had this youthful chorus under his careful training for some weeks and that his hard and earnest endeavors are fully rewarded was evidenced by the excellent renditions given the various numbers which made up the evening's entertainment.

Prof. Croxton was ably assisted in the preparation of the chorus work by Miss Tevis Carpenter, the accompanist. Miss Carpenter is one of the most advanced students at the Conservatory of Music and it was due in great part to her thorough musical attainments and sympathetic handling of the parts that such a great success was achieved. Miss Naomi Hottes, the orchestra, accompanist, also assisted greatly in making the evening a most delightful one.

It is to be sincerely hoped that henceforth more of these public rehearsals will be given during the school term. The pupils are greatly benefitted by public rendition of their songs and choruses, in that they acquire a confidence in themselves that will stand them in good stead in after life. That more of these attractions will be heartily welcomed by the public in general was manifested by the zest and enthusiasm of the encores which followed the selections.

POISON

CASE AT LOUISVILLE RESULTS IN ACQUITTAL OF DEFENDANT COOPER.

Louisville, Ky., May 1.—The jury in the case of Birch Cooper, charged with the attempted poisoning of his grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Birch, in January of this year, after being out forty-five minutes, returned a verdict acquitting him of the charge. The first ballot taken by the jury resulted in a vote of 11 to 1 for acquittal. Juror R. J. Lawrence voted "guilty." He finally came over to the majority. The verdict was received with applause. Commonwealth's Attorney Huffaker announced after the verdict had been rendered that another indictment would be found against Cooper, and that though it would be necessary to charge him with administering poison to some one other than Mrs. Birch, the prosecution would have a much stronger case than the one just tried. Cooper was the only witness for the defense.

HOLMES-SWANN

The editor of The Democrat is in receipt of the following:

Colonel and Mrs. James Singleton Swann announce the marriage of their daughter, Azale, to Dr. Anderson Mansfield Holmes, Saturday, April 25, 1903, Denver Colorado.

The beautiful bride is well known here, where she has often visited, the guest of Mrs. Bishop Clay and of the Misses Spurr at "Lealand." She is a graduate of Beaumont College, Harrodsburg, and is as accomplished as she is charming in every way.

New classes in Bookkeeping, Short-hand Writing and Telegraphy will be formed each day this week at the Commercial College of Kentucky University for the morning, afternoon and night sessions. For particulars visit the college, southwest corner of Main and Mill streets, or address Wilbur R. Smith.

HANDSOME OFFICE BUILDING

Of Five Stories or More to be Erected at Short and Mill by S. T. & S. V. Co.

Several months ago the Security Trust and Safety Vault Company purchased of the Southern Mutual Investment Company the Sayre Bank property at the corner of Mill and Short streets, at a cost of $26,000. At a meeting of the directors of the Trust Company, held Thursday, it was decided to erect on the property a handsome and modern office and business block.

The structure will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000. It will be up to date in every particular and will be five stories high and so constructed that it can be increased to eight if requirements demand it.

The new building is intended for business and office purposes. It will front sixty-eight feet on Short street and will run back on Mill street a distance of 120 feet. The Trust Company will occupy the first floor at Short and Mill streets as its offices.

The building is to be entirely fire-proof, constructed of stone, steel and ornamental brick. There is to be a basement under the entire building, to be used as shops and for the large storage vaults of the Trust Company, which are to be used to store silver and other packages and articles of value. The burglar-proof vaults of the company will be in the rear of the office at the corner of Short and Mill streets.

A twenty-five-foot light shaft will be constructed in the center of the building to furnish light to the inside office rooms.

There will be nearly a hundred rooms in the upper stories of the building and the two store rooms, with warehouses in the rear, will front on Short street. The building will be modern in all its appointments. There will be a double elevator, a special heating and lighting plant, adequate to accommodate whatever size building may be decided upon. Hard wood will be used in the interior finishings, with marble wainscoting.

The building will be a credit and an ornament to the city. It will also prove to be a paying investment, as the demand for up-to-date office and business rooms in Lexington is greater than the supply. Both the city and the Trust Company should be congratulated on the erection of such a building.

LOCAL OFFICE O. K.

GENERAL MANAGER OF POSTAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY HERE ON TOUR OF INSPECTION.

Mr. S. A. Duncan, general manager of the Postal Telegraph Company, with headquarters at Atlanta, together with Mr. W. S. Slater, manager of the Louisville office, was in the city yesterday on a trip of inspection. He found the local office of the company in excellent condition and highly complimented Manager Kelly on his able management of affairs. The office here will be completely overhauled and treated to a new coat of paint and paper.

ZACHARY FORMING A NATIONAL REFORM FEDERATION

Evangelist James W. Zachary returned from St. Louis Thursday, and left yesterday for Lynchburg, O., where he will preach on Sunday.

He and a number of other prominent national temperance workers are organizing the National Reform Federation, founded upon the following principles: Municipal, State and national prohibition; abolition of the social evil; woman suffrage. Mr. Zachary reports that the Federation is meeting with great success.

TOTAL DESTRUCTION

OF HOUSE AVERTED ONLY BY QUICK PLAY OF STREAM ON FIRE.

A fire broke out last night at 10 o'clock in the frame cottage, No. 374 East Main street. For a time it looked as though the house with its contents would be totally destroyed, but as soon as the fire department got a stream on the flames they were quickly extinguished.

The roof of the house was almost totally destroyed and the furniture was badly affected by the water.

The house was occupied by Mr. W. N. Dodson with his family. Mr. Dodson is employed by the Chesapeake and Ohio railway as a fireman. None of the family were present when the fire started. It is supposed that the fire originated in the kitchen of the house from a fire that had been left in the cooking stove. The house is the property of Mr. Charles Bowyer and is probably fully insured. It is not known whether Mr. Dodson had any insurance on his household goods or not.

GUN CLUB SHOOT

NEXT WEEK WILL BE ATTENDED BY ALL PROMINENT MARKSMEN.

The Lexington Gun Club received yesterday 5,444 clay pigeons, to be used in their tournament here next Tuesday and Wednesday, May 5 and 6.

Trap shooting is a splendid sport and those interested will have an opportunity of seeing here some of the most famous live-bird and target shots in the United States. When such men as Crosby, Helkes, Gilbert, Clay and our own Jake Gay enter in an event some fine shooting will be seen.

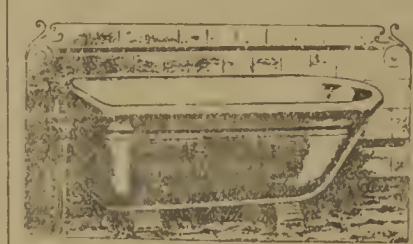

These and many more will be contestants in the events programmed by the Lexington Gun Club for the biggest tournament ever held in Kentucky.

Manager Robert Skinner says everything will be in ship-shape for the opening gun next Tuesday.

JUDGE IRA JULIAN IS CONFIDENT OF ELECTION.

Judge Ira Julian, of Frankfort, who is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General, was in the city yesterday, mixing up with his many friends. He reports his chances for success very bright.
